Extract from Madras S. B. Police Abstract No. 48, dated 5th December 1903.

2419. "Jubbulpore, 31-10-03. The Dy. Supdt. of Police reports: 'A dacoity occurred on 4th July 1903 on the Mandla-Rewa border, and as a result of enquiry eight arrests were made. It appears that Peshawaris were the leaders and organizers of the dacoity. One of these, Saheb Gul, was found to have been convicted in an exactly similar case in Coimbatore Dist. in Madras Presidency in 1898, being sentenced along with five other Peshawaris to six months' rigorous imprisonment each, under section 143, Indian Penal Code.

"The Peshawar authorities characterise this Saheb Gul as a well-known thief and his relatives are all evil birds.

gang of —— suspected as dacoits.

As this man has found his way up to these Provinces it is possible that his five Confreres, who were sentenced in Madras, are somewhere about. Their descriptive rolls are published for information:—

"(1) Nagamal — Rajput, sweetmeat seller of Salem; age 30 years; height 5'2½"; irregular scar on the right side and upper part of head in front; two black moles on the right side and lower portion of chest; a scar on ~~the outerside and~~ upper part of right shoulder blade.

"(2). Imam Shah — Mahammadan Mughal, merchant of Benares; age 31 years; height 5'4½" faint scar on right side and middle of Abdomen; a scar on the outerside and ~~upper~~ middle part of right leg; a scar on the outerside and upper ~~part~~ part of right leg.

"(4) Alif Khan — Mahammadan Shaik beggar of Mysore, Balapore, age 60 years; height 5' 6¾"; face pitted with small-pox; a black mole just below the back and bend of left knee; two small scars on back and lower part of right thigh.

"(5) Alam Gul — Mahammadan Pathan; merchant of Peshawar; age 25 years; height 5' 8½"; scar on left side and upper part of chest below armpit; depressed scar on right side and lower part of back; two small ~~scars~~ moles on ~~left side~~ front and ~~lower part~~ and upper part of chest.

"This last man is the Saheb Gul who

N O T E.

The confidential communication received with the Inspector General's No: 3814/P.c237 dated the 28th/29 December 1903 relates to the suspicious movements of certain Pathans or Peshavari Rohillas in the neighbourhood of Amaraot:

2. The report of Inspector Mr Priestly dated the 2nd ultimo(o: which a copy has been ~~forwarded~~ furnished) gives the descriptive roll o: Pathan Sheik Rasool, who seems to have been placed under arre: as he was found in possession of 47 currency notes of the tot: value of Rs 710/-. These currency notes are suspected to have been stolen; and the records of undetected cases in this Dist: do not show that such currency notes were stolen in any of th: reported cases. The photograph of Sheik Rasool, if available would have facilitated identification and led to the discover: of his antecedents if he were in any way concerned in the sev: ral cases reported in this Province.

3. Pathans of the Hubli gang are well known in these parts as addicted to Temple looting. Members of this fraternity are foun distributed over a large area. The Civil and Military Station Bangalore is one of their favourite haunts. Several of them have temporarily settled there and keep constantly moving about the principal centres of trade in the Province on pretext of sell -ing cloth or Asaphoetida. The movements and doings of such observation in accordance with the "Confidential"Circular orders issued by the Inspector General of Police in Mysore . Two of these Pathans named Abdulla Beg and Ferozuddin who arrived from the Civil and Military Station in November last are moving about Chickanayakanhally and Tiptur trading in Shawls and cloths.Their movements continue to be watched and their behaviour so far has not given cause for suspicion The District Superintendent of Police C and M station Bangalo to whom a reference was made regarding their character and antecedents has nothing to say against their conduct. They re said to be Shawl merchants of shop No 107 commercial Stre and M Station. It is stated that they continually travel to ifferent places with their goods, that they have not been onvicted of any offence in the C and M Station, and that noth hatever is known of their antecedents (vide copy of letter o 877 dated 9th December 1903 from the Dist. Superintendent of Pol, and M Station hereto attached.

. It is therefore not easy to trace here what past record hey have left behind them before they arrived within the imits of the C and M Station Bangalore. The descriptive roll f Sheik Rasool as given by Inspector Mr:Priestly does not ally with that of either of the two Pathans named above.

. The names of 11 Pathans mentioned in the confidehtial com ication under reference tally with some of the Hubli gang .

concerned in the temple- burglaries that occurred both inthe Province and in other parts of British India. The temple robberies at Bettadapur, at Melkote, at Magadi, at Hagarehalli, are among the cases of the Province traced to the members of the Peshvari or Pathan Gang at Hubli. Several ofthem werecancerned also in the serious temple dacoities of Soutth Canara(Subramanya temple dacoity in 1897), of North Canara (Kollur temple dacoity of Goa)(1897-98), and of the temple robbery at Cape Comorin. Some 40 pathans of Hubli and Bangalore(C and M Station) were arrested in the Goa temple theft case in 1898 and the photographs available of those concerned are forwarded herewith for Inspection as per list appended.

5. There are two persons in this group whose names answer t that of Sheik Rasool; but the descriptive marks noted on th photographs do not coincide with those given ni the Confide communication received from the District Superintendent of Police, Amaraoti.

The photograph No 43 is that of Sheik Rasool Khan who was bound over for bad livelihood in the Kadur Dis in 1897-98.

Photo No.36 is that of another person of the same name, who was arrested in connection with the Goa temp Dacoity Case. But as the Pathans are in the habit of giving names in different places mere similarity of names is not a sure guide to satisfactory identification of the indivíduals. Among other names mentioned by Inspector Mr. Priestly those of Mir Afzul Khan, Miah Khan, Mulla Khan or Mulla occur familiarly in the Hubli group; but enquiry in the C and M Station, Bangalore, as well as at Hubli in the light of the available information and with the aid of the accompanying photographs prove very useful.
